*Can you hear? There's a new song Breaking out from the children of freedom
Every race and every nation Sing it out, sing a new hallelu - jah. Yeh
Let us sing love to the nations Bringing hope of the grace that has freed us
Make Him known and make Him famous Sing it out, sing a new hallelu - jah. Yeh*

*Arise, let the church arise Let love reach to the other side
Alive, come alive Let the song arise*

*Africa sings a new song Reaching out with a new hallelu - jah
Every son and every daughter Everyone sing a new hallelu - jah.*

*Arise, let the song arise Let love reach to the other side
Alive, come alive
Let the song arise Let the song arise. Let the song arise. Let the song arise.*

Everyone sing a new hallelu – jah Everyone sing a new hallelu - jah

A. Reveal your vision for us and keep us focused and faithful to what you would have us do.

C. Bring us together to worship and work for your purpose and move us forward into your future. Amen.

Song of Praise “Here’s my heart lord”

*Here’s my heart Lord, here’s my heart Lord
Here’s my heart Lord, Speak what is true*

*Here’s my heart Lord, here’s my heart Lord
Here’s my heart Lord, Speak what is true*

*I am found, I am Yours I am loved, I’m made pure
I have life, I can breathe I am healed, I am free*

*You are strong, You are sure You are life, You endure
You are good, always true You are light breaking through*

*Here’s my heart Lord, here’s my heart Lord
Here’s my heart Lord, Speak what is true*

*You are more than enough You are here, You are love
You are hope, You are grace You’re all I have, You’re everything*

*Here’s my heart Lord, here’s my heart Lord
Here’s my heart Lord, Speak what is true*

*Here’s my heart Lord, here’s my heart Lord
Here’s my heart Lord, Speak what is true*

Opening Prayer

A. Father, we feel that my life is needing Your direction more and more. We need a divine ‘vision’ of You, a godly understanding of You and a deeper relationship with You. Lord, we want to know You more and love You better.

C. At times We feel that my Christian life has just been scratching the surface of Who You are and we long to be like Job, who said, “I have heard about You with my ears, but now I see You with my eyes.” He saw You with his spiritual eyes of understanding, and Lord, I desire to have that intimate vision of You too, although I shrink back from having to go through the difficulties and trials that Job had to experience.

A. Give us that inner vision of Yourself we pray. Your character, Your Person, Your love, and draw me ever closer to Yourself, so that I too may say, “my ears have heard all about You but now I have a vision of Who You truly are.” This we ask in Jesus’ name, C. Amen.

Word is Alive Among Us

Readings (Reader—Katherine Wilt)

Proverbs 18:1-25

For people who hate discipline and only get more stubborn, There'll come a day when life tumbles in and they break, but by then it'll be too late to help them. When good people run things, everyone is glad, but when the ruler is bad, everyone groans. If you love wisdom, you'll delight your parents, but you'll destroy their trust if you run with whores. A leader of good judgment gives stability; an exploiting leader leaves a trail of waste. A flattering neighbor is up to no good; he's probably planning to take advantage of you. Evil people fall into their own traps; good people run the other way, glad to escape. The good-hearted understand what it's like to be poor; the hardhearted haven't the faintest idea. A gang of cynics can upset a whole city; a group of sages can calm everyone down. A sage trying to work things out with a fool gets only scorn and sarcasm for his trouble. Murderers hate honest people; moral folks encourage them. A fool lets it all hang out; a sage quietly mulls it over. When a leader listens to malicious gossip, all the workers get infected with evil. The poor and their abusers have at least something in common: they can both see—their sight, GOD's gift! Leadership gains authority and respect when the voiceless poor are treated fairly. Wise discipline imparts wisdom; spoiled adolescents embarrass their parents. When degenerates take charge, crime runs wild, but the righteous will eventually observe their collapse. Discipline your children; you'll be glad you did—they'll turn out delightful to live with. If people can't see what God is doing, they stumble all over themselves; But when they attend to what he reveals, they are most blessed. It takes more than talk to keep workers in line; mere words go in one ear and out the other. Observe the people who always talk before they think—even simpletons are better off than they are. If you let people treat you like a doormat, you'll be quite forgotten in the end. Angry people stir up a lot of discord; the intemperate stir up trouble. Pride lands you flat on your face; humility prepares you for honors. Befriend an outlaw and become an enemy to yourself. When the victims cry out, you'll be included in their curses if you're a coward to their cause in court. The fear of human opinion disables; trusting in GOD protects you from that. Everyone tries to get help from the leader, but only GOD will give us justice. Good people can't stand the sight of deliberate evil; the wicked can't stand the sight of well-chosen goodness.

Habakkuk 2:1-3

What's God going to say to my questions? I'm braced for the worst. I'll climb to the lookout tower and scan the horizon. I'll wait to see what God says, how he'll answer my complaint.

And then GOD answered: "Write this. Write what you see. Write it out in big block letters so that it can be read on the run. This vision-message is a witness pointing to what's coming. It aches for the coming—it can hardly wait! And it doesn't lie. If it seems slow in coming, wait. It's on its way. It will come right on time.

Gospel Verse

C. Seek Ye First the kingdom of God and His righteous. Then all these things shall be added to you. Alleluia.

Gospel

Matthew 6:33

“If God gives such attention to the appearance of wildflowers—most of which are never even seen—don’t you think he’ll attend to you, take pride in you, do his best for you? What I’m trying to do here is to get you to relax, to not be so preoccupied with getting, so you can respond to God’s giving. People who don’t know God and the way he works fuss over these things, but you know both God and how he works. Steep your life in God-reality, God-initiative, God-provisions. Don’t worry about missing out. You’ll find all your everyday human concerns will be met.

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I Believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again; He ascended into heaven, He is seated at the right hand of the Father, and He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
